What type of incident would you like to report?

Code of Ethics Violation

What would you like to report?

On February 17, 2026, Town Councilor Deb Paul refused to recuse herself from voting on a policy that presents a direct financial benefit to her privately owned business, The Londonderry Times. Despite the clear conflict of interest, Councilor Paul participated in the decision-making process, raising serious concerns regarding compliance with ethical standards, transparency, and public trust in Town governance. This action warrants formal review to determine whether applicable conflict-of-interest laws and ethical obligations were violated.
